

The French Foreign Trade Advisors in Croatia

and

CampusFrance Croatie

are glad to invite

students and alumni of the Faculty of Economics of the University of Zagreb

on June 16th at 5PM

at the French Institute (Preradoviceva 5) to join us for a talk on the following topic :

An international career with French companies, mission impossible?

French companies are very international and offer rewarding careers, but bear the reputation of being hard to enter. Could a Croatian young graduate break in? What long term strategy could help? What is the French business in Croatia? What do they represent of the whole French Corporate? Is French language necessary? Is a French diploma necessary? How to get started?

Martin de Survilliers,
Country Manager in Croatia for AGS, French Company in Logistics/Shipping, and member of the French Foreign Trade Advisors in Croatia

Ludovic Coquillet,
Managing Partner Adria for Alexander Hughes International Executive Search agency, and Member of the Board of French-Croatian Chamber of Commerce

Jasna Bas,
Attaché for Science and Higher Education at the French Institute Croatia, CampusFrance Croatia desk officer

Will share with you their professional and personal insights so you can be fully prepared to meet the challenge!

The number of available of places being limited, please confirm your attendance by email (mediatheque@institutfrançais.hr) before June 14th at 4PM.
