

Junior Country Manager Intern @ BimBimBikes

Founded in March 2015, we are a Dutch startup company based in Rotterdam that offers an online booking platform for bike rentals in 40 countries. Take a look at our website www.bimbimbikes.com!

What is all about?

You will be responsible to grow and maintain the network of bike rental companies in your target market:

- Do you like challenges? One target: make 100 bike rental companies join our platform
- Be the trusted contact person for new and existing bike rental companies

What about consumers?

- Assisting the marketing manager to attract consumers of your target market to use BimBimBikes services: based on your competences, interests and company's need you should develop side projects. Few examples can be: SEO, Social Media, event marketing, SEA, etc.
- Customer service for your market

What do we offer?

Expenses refund of 250€ per month + lunch at the office
Learn a lot, by having a lot of responsibilities and actually see the results of your job
360° insight on how a company works
Lots of freedom (if you can manage it). Everybody can develop its own project.
Young, passionate, international and creative team.

The perfect match...

Although you are a team player, you are an independent thinker and self starter
You focus on results and find creative ways to obtain them
You are not interested in working for a huge company, you want to build it yourself!
You have a curious mind. If you don't how to do something, you just find out!
9 to 5 mentality? You hate it. You work as long as you need to obtain your goals.
You need freedom, but you use it to obtain goals.
Besides your own native language, you can communicate in English.
