

McKinsey & Company is a leading international management consulting firm with more than 100 offices in over 60 countries. We are the trusted advisor to the world's leading businesses, governments, and institutions on issues of strategy, organization and operations.

For our office in Zagreb, we are announcing an opening for a part-time position in the Research & Information Department.

Part-time Junior Research Analyst

A Part-time Junior Research Analyst assists local and international consulting teams in sourcing, analyzing and synthesizing information to address specific business issues. Together with your research colleagues from around the world, you will

- Participate in conducting end to end research in response to specific questions (source information from internal as well as secondary data sources, analyze and synthesize this information, and create well organized, concise end products)
- Develop knowledge expertise in specific sectors or functions

What we offer

- Access to one of the best knowledge organizations worldwide
- Contribution to solving key issues with lasting impact
- On-the-job and internal training program
- Dynamic, friendly, welcoming environment

Who we are looking for

- Student in penultimate or ultimate year of Bachelor or Master program (preferably in Economics) at a reputed local university, with a consistent record of academic excellence
- Excellent written and verbal command of English and Croatian
- Awareness and interest in economic, financial, and general business concepts and terminology
- Strong interest and proven ability to collect, analyze and synthesize information and knowledge
- Intellectual curiosity and investigative mind
- Strong problem-solving, analytical and quantitative skills
- A professional attitude and service orientation, with the ability to work efficiently in a fast-paced environment
- Flexible working schedule
