

In Brief	FlixBus is a long distance mobility operator and since 2013 has offered an alternative and green way to travel which suits every budget. After merging with MeinFernbus, the startups are clearly top of the market in Germany and are now heading for Europe.
Vision	“Europe turns green” – FlixBus is a new kind of mobility in Europe.
Market Entry	13 th Feb 2013
Current network	10,000 daily connections (covering 2.5 million km per week) connecting over 300 destinations in 15 countries (DE, CH, AT, NL, FR, BE, IT, LU, CZ, SK, SI, HR, HU, DK, SE)
Passengers	20 million since launch
Headquarters	Berlin/Munich (Germany), Paris (France), Milan (Italy)
Employees	600 (and 3,500 drivers at cooperating bus companies)
Bus Partners	180 bus companies (650 buses)
Business Model	The startup teams are handling network planning, customer service, quality management, marketing/sales as well as ticketing, pricing and the enterprise's business development. Regional bus partners – frequently family run companies built on generations of success – will be responsible for the day-to-day running of routes and a fleet of green FlixBuses, all based on the highest comfort and safety standards. Innovation, entrepreneurial spirit and a brand implementing powerful mobility throughout Europe come together along with the experience and quality of a traditional mobility operating company. Within an incredibly short time, FlixBus and its partners have built up one of Europe's most extensive mobility networks. FlixBus offers its passengers a sustainable, high quality and low cost means of transport with daily European travel. www.flixbus.com/company
