Twenty-one papers explore trade perspectives, focusing on safety, security, privacy, and loyalty. Papers include topics such as supply-chain resilience and international terrorism; the impact of terrorism on the security and continuity of international business activities; modern maritime piracy—which it is a threat to international chains of supplies; shrinkage in the retail trade in some European countries and the Republic of Croatia; and the economic impact of trade in counterfeit goods and consequences for consumer safety. Knego, Renko, and Knezevic are with the Faculty of Economics and Business at the University of Zagreb. No index.