“Package – Identify – Ship”

Website: <http://fl.uni-mb.si/>

Date: 16–24 June 2013

Venue: Celje, Slovenia

Organisers:

University of Maribor, Faculty of Logistics, Celje, Slovenia

Invited Lecturers:

Assoc. Professor Anthony T H Chin, PhD, National University of Singapore, Singapore

Professor Dr. – Ing. Herwig Unger, FernUni, Hagen, Germany

Professor Konrad Schliephake, PhD, University of Würzburg, Germany

Professors from the Siberian State Aerospace University, Krasnoyarsk, Russia

Purpose:

The summer school will offer lectures and workshops on some aspects of logistics such as packaging, simulations of discrete stochastic events in logistics processes, and geographical information systems (GIS), aimed at undergraduate as well as postgraduate students around the world. Students will attend lectures by the renowned professors from the National University of Singapore and two Universities from Germany - FernUni Hagen and University of Würzburg - and the Siberian State Aerospace University from Russia as well as join two excursions, to KRKA, a pharmaceutical company in Novo mesto and to Safe Driving Centre in Ljubecna near Celje.

In the evenings, students will be able to enjoy the annual festival Summer in Celje. This time of the year is a particularly exciting time to be in Celje, the city of counts.

Topics:

Packaging

Simulations of discrete stochastic events in logistics processes

Geographical information systems (GIS)

Scope:

Students will gain new knowledge on “packaging-identifying-shipment” and they will be introduced to examples of good practice.
