

THE UNIVERSITY OF ZAGREB
FACULTY OF ECONOMICS & BUSINESS

Student Contact List

Academic year 2014/2015

THE UNIVERSITY OF ZAGREB
FACULTY OF ECONOMICS & BUSINESS

Academic year 2014/2015

Winter

Student Contact List

Name and surname: Simone

Country of origin: Milano, Italy

Home institution: Università degli studi di Milano

Study period at FEB: Winter semester

Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: International Business

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: I came here by bus, and here I use the tram

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: Zagreb is a very alive and safe city, so it's simple to live here

Name and surname: Simon

Country of origin: Liège, Belgium

Home institution: Haute école de la Province de Liège

Study period at FEB: Winter semester

Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Organisation

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: I came by plane to Rijeka from Brussels south then I used mostly the trams and the bus

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: Because it does not look like the cities you have in Belgium

What do you value the most of studying abroad: Being abroad, new experience

Name and surname: Justyna

Country of origin: Vilnius, Lithuania

Home institution: ISM-University of management and economics

Study period at FEB: Winter semester

Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Corporate Finance

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb:

I came by plane. Here I used trams

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: I liked warm weather, your seaside and pekarница's

What do you value the most of studying abroad: Experience that I gain while being quite independent. Also, traveling

ISM

UNIVERSITY OF MANAGEMENT
AND ECONOMICS

Name and surname: Aurelija

Country of origin: Lithuania

Home institution: ISM –University of management and economics

Study period at FEB: Winter semester

Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Corporate Finance

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: I came here by plane and in Zagreb used trams and buses.

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: Croatia has a beautiful seacoast. Zagreb is not a specially beautiful town, but transportation is easy and comfortable.

What do you value the most of studying abroad: Combining travelling and studying. It wasn't hard to do that in Zagreb.

Name and surname: Rafal

Country of origin: Vilnius, Lithuania

Home institution: Vilnius Gediminas Technical University

Study period at FEB: Winter semester Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Macroeconomics, Accounting and Corporate Finance

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: By a long travel from Lithuania via Italy.

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: Rich culture and great warm people.

What do you value the most of studying abroad: The quality of studies.

Name and surname: Soumia

Country of origin: Liège, Belgium

Home institution: Haute Ecole de la Province de Liège

Study period at FEB: Winter semester Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: I really liked Management.

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: I came by plane and used here trams, busses.

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: It is really different from my city and country, people are nice, it is a quiet city which can be also really active.

What do you value the most of studying abroad: Being able to share this experience with people from all over the world.

Name and surname: Po-Han

Country of origin: Tainan, Taiwan

Home institution: National Cheng Kung University

Study period at FEB: Winter semester Exchange programme: bilateral agreement

Which courses did you like the most: Monetary Policy

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: Airplane and tram.

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: Beautiful and friendly.

What do you value the most of studying abroad: New friend.

Name and surname: Tobias

Country of origin: Ulm, Germany

Home institution: Universität Ulm

Study period at FEB: Winter semester Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Management

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: By train; i used the tram during my stay in Zagreb.

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: The people are all friendly and want to help you.

What do you value the most of studying abroad: Meeting new people, improve english, getting more independent from parents

Name and surname: Mohamed

Country of origin: Nancy, France

Home institution: University of Lorraine

Study period at FEB: Winter semester

Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

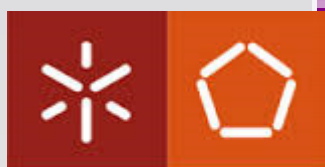

Exchange programme:

Which courses did you like the most: Health Economics

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: Flight.

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: Anything.

What do you value the most of studying abroad: Meeting people

Universidade do Minho

Name and surname: Joao

Country of origin: Braga, Portugal

Home institution: University of Minho

Study period at FEB: Winter semester

Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: International Entrepreneurship.

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb:

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: It's amazing! People are amazing!

What do you value the most of studying abroad: Meet new people

Name and surname: Fattoum

Country of origin: Nantes, France

Home institution: Faculty of Nantes

Study period at FEB: Winter semester

Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Exchange programme:

Which courses did you like the most: Management

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: Plane/bus

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: Welcoming people.

What do you value the most of studying abroad: The people that you meet.

Name and surname: Andreas

Country of origin: Bayreuth, Germany

Home institution: University of Bayreuth

Study period at FEB: Winter semester

Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Accounting

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: I came by train. During my stay I only used the trams.

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: Open minded, modern city. Good infrastructure, a lot of cultural activities.

What do you value the most of studying abroad: Improving language skills, gathering with people from other cultures

Name and surname: Deborah

Country of origin: Nantes, France

Home institution: University of Nantes

Study period at FEB: Winter semester Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Management

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: I came by plane and I used trams during my stay

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: I really liked Zagreb and especially Croatians people. I liked the city (not so big, charming and relaxed). People speak english. Croatia is also very beautiful (Split, Zadar, Krka, Plitvice...)

What do you value the most of studying abroad: Meeting new people, discover another culture, travelling, living with people etc.

Name and surname: Quentin

Country of origin: Dijon, France

Home institution: IUT of Dijon

Study period at FEB: Winter semester Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Demography, International Entrepreneurship

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: Plane, using tram most of the time, sometime bus. It would be nice some help to find bikes

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: Dynamic, Croatian people are kind with foreigners. Beautiful landscape, easy to visit and move to other countries

What do you value the most of studying abroad: meeting a different culture, new people open minded and kind. English classes. This is very valuable!

Name and surname: Akhmajon

Country of origin: Almaty, Kazakhstan

Home institution: KIMEP University

Study period at FEB: Academic year

Exchange programme: Erasmus Mundus

Which courses did you like the most: Corporate Finance, Monetary Policy and Financial Mathematics

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: Public transportation and taxi services.

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: People are nice, well-behaved, always try to help, city is very beautiful, calm place. Cities on the coast are very beautiful and exciting!

What do you value the most of studying abroad: Quality of education, internship opportunities, exchange of cultural views and values and etc.

Name and surname: Leonor

Country of origin: Lisboa, Portugal

Home institution: University of Lisboa

Study period at FEB: Winter semester

Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Monetary Policy

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: By plane. Mostly buses and sometimes the trams.

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: I love the cost of Croatia and I love the localization of Zagreb to travel to other countries.

What do you value the most of studying abroad: travel and meeting new people.

Name and surname: Gulnara

Country of origin: Shymkent, Kazakhstan

Home institution: Auezov South Kazakhstan State university

Study period at FEB: Academic year

Exchange programme: Erasmus Mundus

Which courses did you like the most: Business statistics, corporate risk management

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: I came to Zagreb by plane. And in Zagreb use trams and buses.

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: Because my grandfather loves Croatia, and it is mainly influenced to my decision.

What do you value the most of studying abroad: Communication and exchange of experience with foreign students.

Email address:

Name and surname: Maria

Country of origin: Lisabon, Portugal

Home institution: ISCTE IUL - Instituto Universitario de Lisboa

Study period at FEB: Winter semester

Exchange programme: ERASMUS

Which courses did you like the most: Accounting, Organisation and Entrepreneurship

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: By plane, tram

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: It's an inviting city/country

What do you value the most of studying abroad: Meet a lot of new people, it was a very good experience, know other different cultures, etc

Name and surname: Monica

Country of origin: Eisenstadt, Austria

Home institution: FH-Burgenland

Study period at FEB: Summer semester

Exchange programme: CEEPUS

Which courses did you like the most: international economics

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: car

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: beautiful city and land

What do you value the most of studying abroad: meeting new and very different people and cultures, get to know cities and countrys in a different way as being there as a tourist

Name and surname: Dimitar

Country of origin: Sofia, Bulgaria

Home institution: UNWE

Study period at FEB: Summer semester

Exchange programme: ERASMUS

Which courses did you like the most: Marketing Innovation

How did you come to Zagreb and what transportation did you use during your stay in Zagreb: Tram

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: Calm and beautiful

What do you value the most of studying abroad: Experience with foreign students

FACULTY OF ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS - ZAGREB
Trg J. F. Kennedya 6, 10 000 Zagreb, Croatia

