

Student Experiences

Academic year 2016/2017

Student Experiences

Name and surname: J. J.

Country of origin: Warsaw, Poland

Home institution: Warsaw School of Economics

Study period at FEB: Winter semester Exchange programme: Erasmus+

Which courses did you like the most: European Market Law

What do you value the most of studying at FEB Zagreb: People, new experiences, travelling, English skills improvement :)

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: Because of the amazing people, nature, spirit, food, rakija, craft beers.

Name and surname: R. M.

Country of origin: Augsburg, Germany

Home institution: Ulm University

Study period at FEB: Full academic year Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Business Statistics

What do you value the most of studying at FEB Zagreb: The most I value of studying at FEB are the people I met.

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: Because is cheap and beautiful.

Name and surname: B. K.

Country of origin: Ulm, Germany

Home institution: Ulm University

Study period at FEB: Winter semester Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Corporate Risk Management

What do you value the most of studying at FEB Zagreb: New connections and new friends.

Where was the best place to eat: Menza and a lot of great restaurants all over the city.

Name and surname: J. H.

Country of origin: Rotterdam, The Netherlands

Home institution: Erasmus School of Economics

Study period at FEB: Winter semester Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Health Economics

Did your time of study at FEB come up to your expectations: I had a really amazing time, learned so many things (not just at university), made a lot of new memories and met some great people!

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: Zagreb is a very nice city with a lot going on. Even though it is not a very big city there are so many cafés, bars, restaurants, clubs, etc. That there is always something happening. People in Zagreb are also very friendly to my experience, and speak good English. The rest of Croatia is also nice, especially the coast.

Name and surname: R. L.

Country of origin: Berlin, Germany

Home institution: Berlin School of Economics and Law

Study period at FEB: Summer semester Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Marketing Innovation

How did you spend your free time: Meeting friends, doing sports, studied and traveled.

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: It is a very beautiful and calm city and country. People are nice and it is not too expensive.

Name and surname: M. H.

Country of origin: Madrid, Spain

Home institution: Complutense University of Madrid

Study period at FEB: Summer semester Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Advanced English and Business Chinese

What do you value the most of studying at FEB Zagreb: The independence you have.

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: It's the perfect city to go on Erasmus and it has a lot of leisure activities.

Name and surname: J. S.

Country of origin: Porto, Portugal

Home institution: Católica Porto Business School

Study period at FEB: Summer semester Exchange programme: Freemover

Which courses did you like the most: Economic Development

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: Nice people, great weather and natural resources. Cheap and near tons of countries to visit.

What do you value the most of studying abroad: The network I built.

Name and surname: L. L.

Country of origin: Vilnius, Lithuania

Home institution: ISM University of Management and Economics

Study period at FEB: Winter semester Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Organizational Behaviour

How did you spend your free time: Clubs, trips and museums.

Why did you choose to come to FEB: Because I wanted to study in a public university.

What do you value the most of studying abroad: Ability to meet new people and travel to other countries.

Name and surname: P. C.

Country of origin: Madrid, Spain

Home institution: Complutense University of Madrid

Study period at FEB: Full academic year Exchange programme: ERASMUS+

Which courses did you like the most: Linear programming and game theory

Did your time of study at FEB come up to your expectations: Yes, I was expecting a hard faculty where I had to study and it was like that. I learnt a lot of things.

Why did you like Zagreb and Croatia: It is a small city and country but everything is very beautiful and you have a lot of activities.

What do you value the most of studying at FEB Zagreb: The relationships I made and the good vibes with the Erasmus students.